

Local Construction Company Wins Regional Award
EDW Builders Named NARI 2013 Regional Contractor of the Year

NEWTOWN, PA – February 27, 2013— EDW Builders, Inc., a Newtown-based construction company, is pleased to announce that they’ve been named (Region #1) Regional Contractor of the Year (CotY) in the Commercial Interior category by The National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI), as a part of NARI’s annual awards competition.

EDW Builders had collected two CotY award wins at the local Bucks/Mont Branch and the Central New Jersey of NARI to qualify for the regional award (Residential Addition and Commercial Interior).

Contractors from seven regions around the country vie for CotY Awards annually. National winners will be announced and honored at NARI’s Evening of ExcellenceSM reception on April 12 at the Intercontinental Kansas City at the Plaza, in Kansas City, Mo, and announced via Webcast the evening of April 12 – available for 30 days at www.nari.org/eveningofexcellence.

To be considered for a CotY Award, a company must be a NARI member. NARI members represent an elite group of the approximately 800,000 companies and individuals in the U.S. identifying themselves as remodelers. This year’s entries totaled over $71 million worth of remodeling projects.

“We’re honored to receive this award,” says Eric Woloshyn, Owner of EDW Builders. “It exemplifies our commitment to high-quality projects and our ability to use our skills and experience to produce excellent results.”
